

TAPESTRY COMMUNITY CHURCH
CONSTITUTION
November 13, 2013

PREAMBLE

Jesus Christ, as King, has given to His Church officers, oracles, and ordinances; and has ordained His system of doctrine, government, discipline, and worship, all of which are either expressly set down in Scripture, or by good and necessary inference may be deduced from it; and to which things He commands that nothing be added nor subtracted. This constitution shall preserve and secure these principles and govern this body in accordance with God's Holy Word, and shall contain enduring ecclesiastical matters related to Tapestry Community Church. (Deut 12:29-32; Mal 1:6-13; Mtt 15:9; John 4:23-24; 1 Cor 4:6; 1 Pet 2:4-5)

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE

The purpose of Tapestry Community Church is to glorify God by striving to keep the Two Great Commandments; namely, by seeking to make disciples of all nations through evangelism and missions, the faithful preaching and teaching of the whole counsel of God, through corporate prayer, by the encouragement of one another through psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, and through mutual accountability.

ARTICLE II. MISSION

The mission of Tapestry Community Church is to glorify God by establishing a body of believers who find their greatest delight in Him, have a palpable love for their neighbor, have a passion for reaching the lost with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, have an unwavering faith in the trustworthiness of God's word, and an unyielding belief in the sovereignty of God over all things.

ARTICLE III. STRUCTURE

Section 1. Name: The name of the church shall be Tapestry Community Church, hereinafter referred to as "TCC".

Section 2. Headship: The Lord Jesus Christ is the sole head and ultimate pastor of the Church in both its universal and local expression. As the Head of the Church, all direction, guidance, control, and authority comes from and eternally resides in Him. (Eph 1:22, 23; Col 1:18; Heb 13:20; 1 Pet 5:4)

Section 3. Polity: The government of TCC is vested in the body of believers who compose its membership. The membership exercise their governing power in their choice of those whom Christ has qualified for the church offices of Elder and Deacon. (Mtt 18:15-17; Acts 1:23-26; 6:2-3; 13:1-3; 14:23; 15:22; 20:28; 1 Cor 5:4-5; Eph 4:11)

Section 4. Authority: The supreme source of authority for TCC regarding all matters of faith and practice shall be the Holy Scriptures as contained in the sixty-six books of the Bible. Of the Old Testament: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, Ruth, I & II Samuel, I & II Kings, I & II Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel, Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi. Of the New Testament: Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Acts, Romans, I & II Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, I & II Thessalonians, I & II Timothy, Titus, Philemon, Hebrews, James, I & II Peter, I, II, & III John, Jude, Revelation. (Deut 8:3; 12:32; Mtt 4:4; Lk 11:49-51; Acts 5:29; 20:29-30; 2 Tim 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:19-21; Jude 1:3)

Section 5. Worship: Since the Holy Scriptures are the only infallible rule of faith and practice, the principles of public worship must be derived from the Bible, and from no other source. Minimally, the Bible teaches that the following are proper elements of public worship: reading of Holy Scripture, singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, the offering of prayer, the preaching of the Word, the presentation of offerings, and observing the Sacraments. (Deut 12:29-32; Mtt 15:8-9; Jn 4:23-24; Acts 2:42; 20:7 [cf. 1 Cor 10:16; 11:20-26]; 1 Cor 4:6; 16:2; Eph 5:18-19; Col 3:16; 1 Tim 2:1; 2 Tim 4:1-2)

Section 6. Doctrine: The Elder(s) as appointed leader(s) of the church shall confirm and protect the doctrine of TCC under the direction of the Holy Spirit, guided by the Word of God, and in agreement with the charter and confession of faith of TCC. The purpose of adhering to a doctrinal statement is to protect the local assembly by more precisely setting forth the doctrine of this church so that the church might be of one common faith true to His inspired Word. (Acts 15:2, 6, 23; 20:17, 28-32; Eph 4:11-14; 1 Thes 5:12-13; 1 Tim 3:2; 2 Tim 4:1-4; Titus 1:9; Heb 13:17)

Section 7. Cooperation: TCC shall be subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body, but recognizes the benefits of mutual counsel and cooperation with churches and associations of like faith and practice, and reserves the right to engage in such counsel and cooperation. (Acts 11:27-30; 15:1-2; 21:17-19; Rom 15:22-33; 1 Cor 16:1-4; 2 Cor 8:1-5; 9:1-5; Phil 4:14-16)

Section 8. Church and State: TCC shall operate in accordance with federal and state laws, and the handling of property shall be in accordance with such laws. Adherence to federal and state laws shall be described in the Bylaws. This section shall be subservient to Article III, Sections 2-7. (Luke 20:22-25; Acts 4:19-20; 5:29; Romans 13:1-7; 1 Tim 2:1-2)

The principle practiced at TCC is to accept into membership all those whom Christ has accepted. Church membership is required for those involved in church ministry (guest ministry excepting, see Article II, Sec. 7) and for active participation in business meetings or special meetings. (Mtt 18:17; 1 Cor 5:1-5; 12:12-13, 2 Thes 3:6, 14)

Section 2. Requirements: Conversion and baptism based on one's own profession of faith are prerequisite to the privilege of church membership. Those who are believers in Christ but have not been baptized shall be requested to do so when joining the church. Those who have been baptized as believers, though the mode of baptism was not immersion, will not be required to be re-baptized, since the New Testament only recognizes one baptism for believers. (1 Cor 12:27; Acts 2:38, 41; 8:35-39; Eph 4:4-5; Mt 28:19; Acts 9:18; 10:47-48; 16:14-15; 16:33; 18:8).

If the applicant is or has been a member of another church, special effort will be made to determine the person's standing in that church and his or her reasons for leaving. The applicant will be left in abeyance no longer than thirty (30) days so that all information concerning the applicant will be made known to the Elder(s). Upon approval, the new member shall be announced to the church body during a Sunday morning worship service. (Matt 18:17; Acts 20:28; 1 Cor 5:2, 5, 11; Heb 13:17)

4. Excommunication from the Lord's Supper and church membership, carried out by the Elders (Mt 18:17b; 1 Cor 5:1-13; 1 Tim 1:19-20)

NOTE: Excommunication from the Lord's Supper and dismissal from church membership does not necessarily mean the disciplined person is not saved. However, excommunication should serve as a solemn admonition for those individuals to examine themselves to see if they are in the faith. Unrepentance shall be the sole cause for excommunication.

ARTICLE VI. MEETINGS

Section 1. Worship Meetings: In accordance with Article II, Section 5, the church body shall meet each Sunday for the worship of God, our Creator, and for edifying the Saints through preaching, teaching, fellowship, prayer, exhortation, collection of offerings, administering of the Sacraments, and discipline.
